The Cross Rates Widget provides real-time exchange-rate comparisons across major currencies, making it a valuable tool for financial websites that want to display live forex market activity.

Monitor currency fluctuations in real time and display live forex pricing in an accessible format.

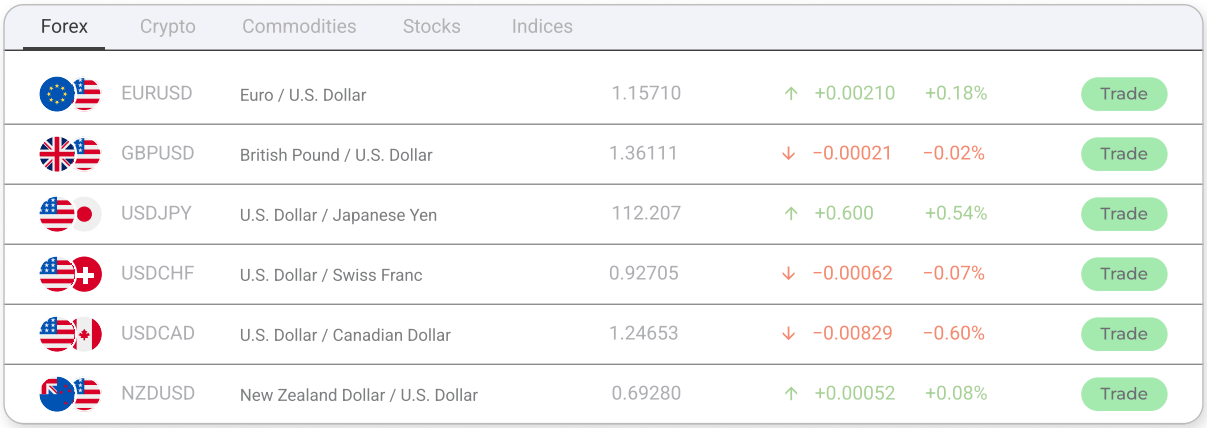

Tape Cards Ticker

The Tape Cards Ticker combines scrolling market updates with individual asset cards to create a more modern and visually engaging market-data experience.

Instead of displaying only simple ticker movement, the widget provides additional visibility into price changes and market activity through dedicated asset cards.

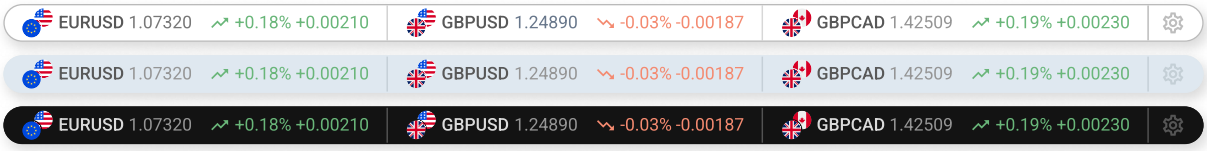

Market Table Ticker

The Market Table Ticker provides a more traditional market-data layout through a detailed tabular structure displaying asset names, prices, and percentage movements.

The widget includes search functionality that allows users to quickly locate specific instruments and monitor market activity. Ideal for brokers and financial websites that want to provide structured market visibility.

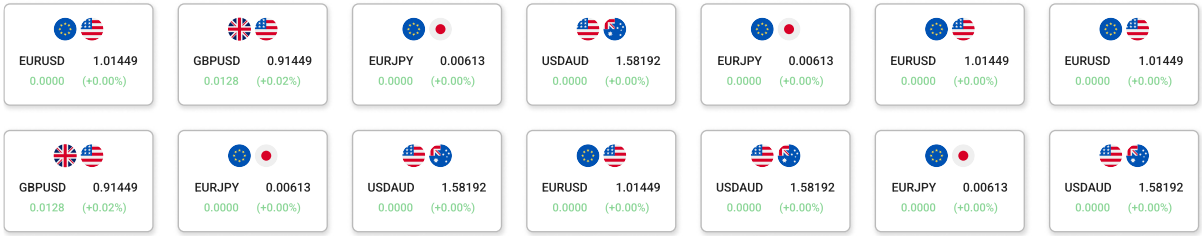

Ticker Tape

Ticker Tape is a dynamic horizontally scrolling widget designed to deliver real-time market updates in a clean and visually unobtrusive format.

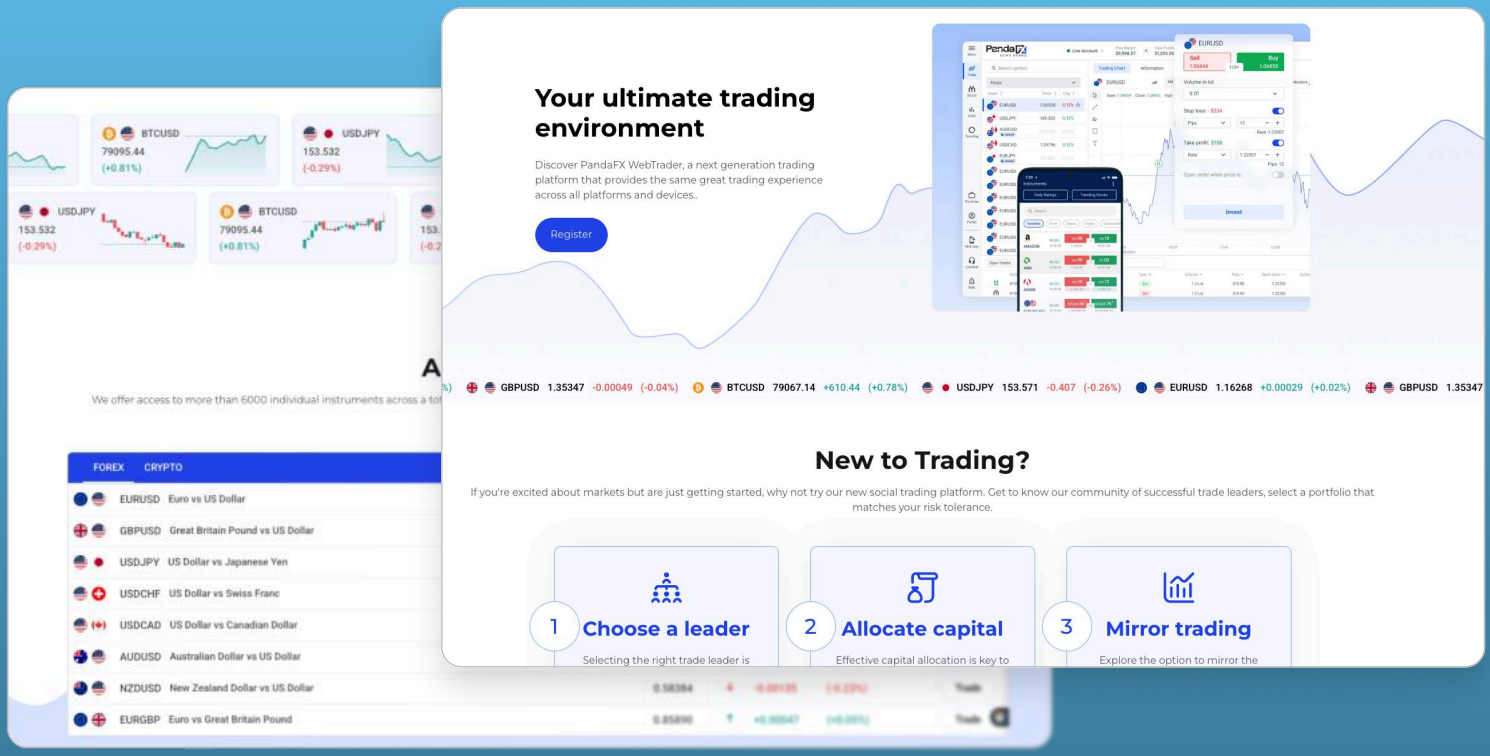

Display live pricing across headers, footers, landing pages and financial-content sections without overwhelming the website design.

Cards Widget

The Cards Widget provides a visually compact and modern way to display market data for individual trading symbols.
